

My Abortion Journey

Julie Setele

Abstract

This deluxe minizine contains two narratives in one. On the front side in minizine format is a personal story about how the author was raised anti-abortion but grew up to become a staunch reproductive justice advocate. On the reverse side in flyer format is information about the reproductive justice movement, a brief discussion of why the zine was created, along with recommended reading and citations. TW: abortion, foster care zine